

UPNET TECHNOLOGIES DBA POSITION DESCRIPTION

UpNet Technologies is an innovator in facilitating translation and the electronic exchange of B2B documents and data. UpNet unveiled breakthrough iEDeX technology which advanced data integration and business systems communications. Today we process over 25 million business transactions per month with international corporations, "big box retailers" and small to mid-size companies with diverse technological capacities. Our many applications simplify companies supply chain processes, deliver significant savings and increase their competitive advantage.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Work closely with the application development team to design, develop and implement database and data management systems to ensure accurate, efficient, flexible and secure data storage and retrieval.
- Administer, maintain and tune databases to ensure the effective performance of the system(s).
- Administer disk usage to efficiently utilize storage space, protect data from loss and to aid system performance.
- Coordinate and be accountable for the design, development and implementation of archive, backup, logging and recovery procedures to guarantee the integrity of corporate data.
- Recommend, develop and enforce IT and Database standards, guidelines and procedures in order to facilitate quality assurance.
- Provide technical consultation, assistance and problem analysis that enhances programmer productivity and system stability.
- Accountable for Production database availability.
- Programming experience in Java is highly desirable.

Position Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, MIS, Mathematics, Engineering, or equivalent work experience.
- 2-5 years minimum database analyst related experience.
- Extensive experience with DB2 in a production processing environment; Database tuning capability is a critical factor of this position.
- Strong experience with Linux. Linux system administrative knowledge is a plus.
- Strong problem solving skills.
- Strong database analysis and design skills.
- Must be able to work at both a conceptual and detail level.
- Must be a self-starter and able to work independently.

Competencies

- Ownership of Results
- Communication
- Collaboration
- Customer Focus
- Innovation
- Business Acumen
- Leadership
- Technical Acumen

We encourage you to visit our website at www.upnettec.com